

at the Shiloh Museum of Ozark History
Saturday, July 11, 2026

You are invited to join the Shiloh Museum of Ozark History in recognizing America's 250th birthday with a community-wide celebration of all things Ozark! This once-in-a-lifetime event will activate all four acres of the museum grounds with interactive activities, historical education, and fun for all ages. Free and open to the entire community, the block party will feature local food and drink vendors, live music, cultural dance performances, living history workshops, artisan demonstrations, special guest lecturers, outreach from nonprofit partner organizations, and more. We hope you can join us!

The Ozarks 250 Block Party is made possible by generous support from sponsors, community partners, and volunteers. We are seeking financial and in-kind sponsors for this event. Please contact Lauren Husband, Development and Volunteer Manager, at lhusband@springdalear.gov or 479-750-8165 to get involved!

Dear Community Partner,

My name is Jared Sullivan, and I serve as Director of Communications and Marketing for Explore Springdale, the official destination marketing organization for Springdale, Arkansas. I am writing to express our strong support for the upcoming Ozarks 250 Block Party, a signature regional celebration of America's 250th birthday in 2026.

The Shiloh Museum of Ozark History is one of Springdale's cornerstone cultural attractions, and this event reflects its mission to celebrate the diverse histories and traditions of our region. Planned as a county fair-style celebration across the museum's four-acre campus, the free event will feature live entertainment, food vendors, artisan demonstrations, special exhibits, and family-friendly activities.

With an anticipated attendance of 1,500–2,000 guests, the Ozarks 250 Block Party is expected to draw strong community participation while generating meaningful visitation and economic activity for local businesses.

Explore Springdale has proudly provided financial support for this event as part of our commitment to investing in our attractions and events that elevate our city and create compelling experiences for residents and visitors alike. We invite you to partner with us and Shiloh Museum of Ozark History in making this historic celebration a success. Businesses that support this event will gain valuable visibility while demonstrating their commitment to local heritage and community pride.

We appreciate your consideration and look forward to working together to make the Ozarks 250 Block Party a memorable celebration for Springdale. Please contact me at jared@chamber.springdale.com with any questions regarding partnership opportunities.

Sincerely,
